

ANDERSEN CORPORATION

VP OF ENTERPRISE IT - MANUFACTURING AND SUPPLY CHAIN OPERATIONS

JOB SPEC

Position Overview & Responsibilities →

1) Strategy Alignment

- Align technology solutions with business strategies. Working to proactively identify opportunities, needs assessments, innovation and broaden technology impact
- Focus on building strong, credible relationships with all stakeholders, includes creating joint objectives and roadmaps to support the overall vision
- Continually creates way to increase business partner satisfaction and deepen relationships
- Ability to inventory and assess current ecosystem and make recommendations on how to close critical gaps
- Ability to articulate to enterprise audiences at all levels key ideas clearly and concisely, ensuring overall alignment

2) Execution Oversight

- Translate strategic objectives into specific tactical plans and rapidly executing against the plans under a backdrop of accelerated growth
- Identify organizational requirements for the resources, structures and changes necessary to support complex IT system transformation
- Delivers to deadlines with the ability to prioritize projects, while committing to meet and deliver on company objectives
- Direct the development, implementation and maintenance of sustainable transformation improvements
- Manage vendor relationship to ensure overall effectiveness and alignment with department and organizational goals

3) Leadership, Talent & Performance Management

- Handles difficult personnel situations directly, using appropriate discretion, HR advice, and respect for the individual
- Works with peers to develop and influence practices related to staff development, performance management, quality, and cost across the department
- Provides leadership development including capability building and development strategies, assessment and feedback
- Demonstrates cultural competencies and behaviors in all interactions
- Champion of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DE&I) across IT and broader organization
- Maintain business contacts and liaison with outside groups and professional association in order to keep the company abreast of advancements and developments in this space
- Brings relevant industry expertise into the role

4) ENTERPRISE Manufacturing and Supply Chain Focus

- Builds a world class manufacturing and supply chain IT organization supporting unprecedented growth at Andersen
- Responsible for supporting all plants through technology across MES, ERP, CPQ, and other systems and integrations
- Supports data and KPIs across operations to measure key manufacturing metrics

5) Position-Specific Responsibilities

- Create and maintain strategic roadmap for Manufacturing & Supply Chain operations tied to overall core business strategies
- Understands existing solutions that support plants, distribution centers, warehouses and other components of the supply chain
- Advances technology efficiencies at plants across both business divisions including: Bayport, Menominee, Cottage Grove (Renewal by Andersen), Goodyear (AZ), Dubuque and Des Moines.
- Seeks new solutions and innovations that will elevate Manufacturing operations
- Partners with all business functions on how to leverage systems and tools to provide a consistent experience across manufacturing locations
- Understand how to navigate changing workplace practices – hybrid work, agile teams, etc. and incorporate learnings throughout the organization
- Envision the manufacturing smart factory of the future and understand how tools, technology, and systems support that vision – Industry 4.0, IT/OT, etc.

Professional Experience and Qualifications →

- Bachelor's degree (Computer Science, Software Engineering, Management Information Systems, Business Administration preferred).
- At least 15+ years of IT experience, including progressive roles and recent team management experience
- Exemplary communication skills - written and verbal
- Proven success implementing manufacturing technology - industry agnostic
- Deep experience managing core, critical enterprise application systems (MES, WMS, ERP, and TMS type technologies)
- Strong Leadership skills with ability to inspire, motivate, and get the best out of people
- Business Interaction: Ability to speak Business language with Business counterparts and ability to understand a Business problem and conceive a technology solution
- Ability to move quickly in a fast-paced working environment, demonstrating a propensity for action
- Agile Methodology experience

Preferred Experience and Qualifications →

- Experience with Supply Chain, and ideally Manufacturing enablement/automation solutions
- Experience with Microsoft platform - Azure, Power Apps, Power BI
- Knowledge experience and/or exposure to Rockwell Automation (MES)
- Knowledge and/or exposure to IIoT, connected manufacturing solutions or Industry 4.0 capabilities

Contact Information →

Michael Tebon
Principal Delivery Manager - Cultura Solutions
mtebon@cultura-solutions.com
(d) 952-288-3854